

ST. DAVID'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Cheraw, South Carolina

Built 1770-3 and named for the patron saint of Wales. Used by the British during the Revolution as a smallpox hospital; 50 who died here are buried in one grave in the shady yard. Many great South Carolinians are buried here including James H. Thornwell and Bishop Alexander Gregg.

Photo by Ernest Ferguson

Dist. by Photo Arts, Winnsboro, S. C. 29180

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Post Card

73908-C

dp

MADE BY DEXTER PRESS, INC.
WEST NYACK, NEW YORK